NEET PG 2022

Question Paper

Forensic Medicine

(Based on Memory Recall)

Q1. A female has come to the gynecologist for hysterectomy. The doctor explains the benefits & risks of the procedure & obtained consent. This type of consent is

a. Implied consent

b. Informed consent

c. Blanket consent

d. Emergency consent

Q2. Adoctor who is drunk, while performing the surgery, injured a major vessel & Death of patient .This is

a. Civil negligence

b. criminal negligence

c. Therapeutic misadventure

d. Dichotomy

Q3. A 45 year old male came with acute loss of hair in head & madarosis. The wife had given history of behavioral changes. The doctor examined the nails & made the diagnosis. The condition is

a. Arsenic poisoning

b. Thallium poisoning

c. Mercury poisoning

d. lead poisoning

Q4.The injury is suggestive of

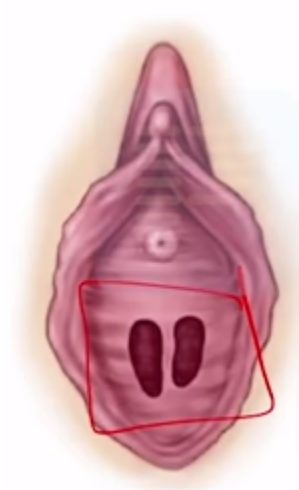

docs.aglasem.com

aglasem.com

a. Postmortem wound
b. Self inflicted cut
c. Defence cuts
d. Hesitational cut

Q5.This type of hymen is

A. Septate
B. Fimbriate
C. Annular
D. Semilunar

Q6. A3 year old child brought to hospital with history of consumption of iron tablets. History of abdominal pain, diarrhoea & vomiting. The child is in comatose condition. The treatment is
a. Desferrioxamine
b. BAL
c. Activated charcoal
d. Penicillamine

Q7. The antidote in opiod poisoning is
a. Methadone
b. Naloxone
c. Flumazenil
d. Oximes

docs.aglasem.com

Q8. Agirl had been brought with history of paracetamol tablets from a medicine bottle. The treatment to be given is

a. N acetyl cysteine

b. Naloxone

c. Flumazenil

d. Atropine

Q9. A dead body is brought with ligature mark over neck, which is encircling the neck, transverse, below the thyroid cartilage. No salivary dribbling noted. This condition is

a. Throttling

b. Mugging

c. Ligature strangulation

d. Hanging

Q10. In a case of lead poisoning, the enzymes inhibited are

a. ALA synthase

b. Uroporphyrinogen III synthetase

c. ALA dehydratase & ferrochelatase

d. Coproporphyrinogen reductase

Q11. Identify the range

a. Pistol near range

b. Rifle Close range

c. Pistol close range

d. Shot gun intermediate

Q12. A 10 year old child with burns involving the front of anterior part of right chest, front of right upper limb, front of right side of abdomen, front of right leg. The percentage of burns involved is

a. 5-10 %

b. 15-20 %

docs.aglasem.com

c. 25-30 %
d. 35-40 %

Q13. Ina court trial, leading questions are not permitted in all the following except,
a. Re-examination
b. Cross examination
c. Dying declaration
d. Direct examination

aglasem

docs.aglasem.com

aglasem.com