Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

The cinema is an outstanding wonder of this modern age. Apart from the great pleasure it gives us as a means of entertainment, it is in many ways an education in itself. The cinema is also a very valuable asset to educationists in imparting knowledge. The film companies from time to time produce historical pictures, and these pictures are of great assistance to the teacher of history. Even some of Shakespeare's dramas and comedies have been filmed, and we thereby gain a much better idea of the play than would be possible from a casual reading. But of far greater importance is the use of the film in the teaching of science and in industry. There are educational film companies which devote their time to the filming of the lives and habits of animals, insects, germs and fishes.

that person to such an act or abstinence, he is said to have made a proposal.

Fact: "Ramanuj telegraphed to Shyam Sunder, writing: "Will you sell me your Rolls Royce CAR? Telegram the lowest cash price." Shyam Sunder also replied by telegram: "Lowest price for CAR is Rs. 20 lakhs." Ramanuj immediately sent his consent through telegram stating: "I agree to buy the CAR for Rs. 20 lakhs asked by you." Shyam Sunder refused to sell the car.

- a) He cannot refuse to sell the CAR because the contract has already been made. ☐
- b) He can refuse to sell the CAR because it was only invitation to offer and not the real offer ☐
- c) It was not a valid offer because willingness to enter into a contract was absent ☐
- d) None of these ☐

144. Principle: Willful rash driving is an offence.

Facts: Mr. Tiwari was driving his car after drinking alcohol. Police books him for wilful negligent driving. Is the act of the police lawful?

- a) No, because Mr. Tiwari was not driving rashly; he was drunk while driving. ☐
- b) No, this is not a negligent act. ☐
- c) Yes, because Mr. Tiwari was driving rashly. ☐
- d) Yes, because the police has the power to arrest a person driving rashly. ☐

145. Principle: Any direct physical interference with goods in somebody's possession without lawful justification is called trespass of goods.

Facts: Z purchased a car from a person who had no title to it and sent it to a garage for repair. X believing wrongly that the car was his, removed it from the garage.

- a) X cannot be held responsible for trespass of goods as he was under a wrong belief. ☐
- b) X can be held responsible for trespass of goods ☐
- c) X has not committed any wrong. ☐

d) None of the above. ☐

146. Assertion (A): The state shall not make any law, which takes away or abridges the rights conferred by Part III (Fundamental Rights) and any law made in contravention of this clause shall, to the extent of the contravention, be void.

Reason (R) : The fundamental rights are the rights reserved by the people and for this reason they are eternal and sacrosanct.

- a) Both A and R are individually true and R is the correct explanation of A ☐
- b) Both A and R are individually true but R is not the correct explanation of A ☐
- c) A is true but R is false ☐
- d) A is false but R is true ☐

147. Assertion (A): All minorities, whether based on religion or language, shall have the right to establish and administer educational institutions of their choice.

Reason (R): Institutions established by the minorities are not entitled to governmental aid and government is not under an obligation to give aid.

- a) Both A and R are individually true and R is the correct explanation of A ☐
- b) Both A and R are individually true but R is not the correct explanation of A ☐
- c) A is true but R is false ☐
- d) A is false but R is true ☐

148. Assertion (A): The Indian Constitution was adopted on 26th November, 1949.

Reason (R): Law Day is celebrated in India on 26th November every year.

- a) Both A and R are individually true and R is the correct explanation of A ☐
- b) Both A and R are individually true but R is not the correct explanation of A ☐
- c) A is true but R is false ☐
- d) A is false but R is true ☐
