1. The Last Supper is a mural painting by the Italian painter Leonardo da Vinci, during 1495–1498. The painting represents the scene of the Last Supper of Jesus with the Twelve Apostles, as it is told in the Gospel of John, specifically the moment after Jesus announces that one of his apostles will betray him. Its handling of space, mastery of perspective, treatment of motion and complex display of human emotion has made it one of the Western world's most recognizable paintings.
2. The Starry Night is an oil-on-canvas painting painted by the Dutch Post Impressionist painter Vincent van Gogh, in June 1889, it depicts the view from the east-facing window of his asylum room at Saint-Rémy-de-Provence, just before sunrise, with the addition of an imaginary village. It has been in the permanent collection of the Museum of Modern Art in New York City since 1941, The Starry Night is one of the most recognized paintings in Western art.
3. Sunflower
Van Gogh's paintings of sunflower are among his most famous. He did them in Arles, in the south of France, in 1888 and 1889. Vincent painted a total of five canvases with sunflower in vase, with three shades of yellow and nothing else. In this way, he demonstrated that it was possible to create an image with numerous variations of single colour, without any loss of eloquence.
