Read the passage and answer the following questions.

Once Emperor Akbar became very angry and asked Birbal to leave his palace. Soon, however, he started missing Birbal. He sent his men to find Birbal. They searched very hard but Birbal was nowhere to be found.

The Emperor got an idea. He offered 1000 gold coins to any man who could come to the palace observing a condition. The condition was that one had to walk in the sun without an umbrella but he had to be in the shade at the same time.

"Impossible," said the people.

Then a villager came carrying a string cot over his head and claimed the prize.

"I've walked in the sun but at the same time I was in the shade of the cot," he said.

It was a brilliant solution. On questioning, the villager said that the idea had been suggested to him by a man living with him.
