46. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

Dolphins are regarded as the friendliest creatures in the sea and stories of them helping drowning sailors have been common since Roman times. The more we learn about dolphins, the more we realize that their society is more complex than people previously imagined. They look after other dolphins when they are ill, care for pregnant mothers and protect the weakest in the community, as we do. Some scientists have suggested that dolphins have a language but it is much more probable that they communicate with each other without needing words. Could any of these mammals be more intelligent than man? Certainly, the most common argument in favour of man's superiority over them that we can kill them more easily than they can kill us is the least satisfactory. On the contrary, the more we discover about these remarkable creatures, the less we appear superior when we destroy them.

It is clear from the passage that dolphins

- d) does not mean that we are superior to them. ☐

One month later, on the day of delivery of the painting, Astha refused to perform the contract saying that she suffers from insanity. Can Lopamudra force performance?

Principle : A person is said to be of sound mind for the purpose of making a contract if, at the time when he makes it, he is capable of understanding it and of forming a rational judgment as to its effect upon his interests.

- a) Yes, because Astha was of sound mind when she entered into the contract. ☐
 - b) No, because Astha had been of unsound mind even while the contract was signed which is proved by the fact that she was admitted in an asylum. ☐
 - c) Yes, because a good painter can paint irrespective of his/her mental stability. ☐
 - d) No, because it was silly on Lopamudra's part to enter into a contract with a mental patient admitted in an asylum. ☐
142. Principle: Mere silence as to the facts likely to affect the willingness of a person to enter into a contract is not a fraud, unless the circumstances of the case are such that, on close examination it is found to be the duty of the person keeping silent to speak, or unless his silence is, in itself, equivalent to speech.

The contract clearly appears to be unconscionable. Upon whom will the burden of proof rest to prove the element of undue influence?

Principle : A contract is said to be induced by undue influence where the relations subsisting between the parties are such that one of the parties is in a position to dominate the will of the other and uses that position to obtain an unfair advantage over the other.
