Story Writing

What makes a Good story?

Good story should have following points

Theme - Something important that story tries to tell, You shouldn't have to say what the moral is.

Plot - Struggle that the main character goes through.

Structure - Decide about writing the story either in "first person" or in "third person." Decide about writing either in "present tense" or in "past tense".

Character - Before you start writing, know your characters well, main character should be someone whom readers can feel something in common with, or at least care about how a character looks or moves or speaks.

Setting - Set your story in a place and time that will be interesting or familiar.

Style and Tone - Use language that is right for your story. Use action and speech to let readers know what's happening Give speech in direct quotes like "Go away" instead of indirect quotes like "She told him to go away." Use simple words and simple sentences. That way, your writing is easy to read and understand. Carefully check each word, phrase, sentence, and paragraph.

Finally remember that the outline of the story should be based on the hints provided to you in the question.
