Answer the following questions.

Q.1. Describe briefly the dream the muddle head had when he slept in the train.

Ans:- The dream the muddle head had when he slept in the train firstly was, he dreamt of him being in paradise and next he dreamt of the world was upside down. This shows that the muddle man was a confused man.

Q.2. Did the muddle head lie down to sleep? Quote the line from the poem in support of your answer.

Ans:- yes, the muddle man had laid down his head to sleep. And settled himself for a bit of a nap, all at once he raised his head. These lines from the poem make clear that the middle man's head was down.

Q.4. Point out why the following lines in the poem sound funny. "A railway ticket please, One way." "A slice of tea and a cup of bread."

Ans:- In the given lines, the muddle man asks for a railway ticket at a cafe and at the station he asks for tea and bread. He even uses these in a confused way, instead of saying cup of tea, he said a slice of tea and instead of asking for a slice of bread he said cup of bread. This interchange of phrases makes the whole thing funny.

Q.5. List the things that make the poem look funny to you.

Ans:-

He wore his mittens on his toes,
Forgot his collar in his haste,
And tied his tie around his waist.

"You've got your coat on inside out!"
And when they saw his hat, they said:
"You've put a saucepan on your head!"

At lunch he scratched a piece of bread,
And spread some butter on his head.
He put his walking stick to bed,
And he stood in the rack instead.
What a muddle head was he,

He rushed into the first café:
"A railway ticket please, One way."
And at the ticket office said:
"A slice of tea and a cup of bread."
