Reading Comprehension

A. Answer the following questions:

1. What did Jimmy Jet want to do?

Ans: Jimmy Jet wanted to watch his TV set all day and all night. He loved watching TV all day.

2. Why did Jim grow pale and lean?

Ans: Jimmy Jet grew pale and lean because he watched TV all day and all night.

3. What does the poet want to say in these lines:

1) From 'The Early Show' to 'The Late Late Show.'

Ans: The poet meant that Jimmy Jet wanted to watch every show from early morning to late night.

2) He loved to watch his TV set as much as you.

Ans: He loved to watch his TV set as much as you do, which means that Jimmy Jet loved watching TV like we love to watch and enjoy.

3) And now instead of him watching TV, we all sit around and watch him.

Ans: Jimmy used to watch TV all day and all night until he grew pale and lean. He watched TV so much that he physically resembled a TV to his family. So now, instead of him watching TV, they would sit around and watch him.

B. (Pair work) Give reasons why we:

1. Should watch TV, 2. Should not watch TV.

Ans:

Reasons why we should watch TV:

a) Entertainment and relaxation: Television offers a wide range of programmes, including movies, shows, documentaries, and sports events, which can provide entertainment and help us relax after a long day.

b) Educational content: TV programmes can be informative and educational, offering documentaries, news broadcasts, educational shows, and cultural programmes that can expand our knowledge and understanding of the world.

c) Stay updated: Television is a popular medium for news and current affairs. Watching TV can help us stay informed about local and global events, developments, and issues.

d) Cultural exposure: Television provides a platform for showcasing diverse cultures, traditions, and perspectives. By watching TV, we can gain exposure to different lifestyles, traditions, and experiences.

e) Social connection: TV shows and events often become topics of discussion and can help facilitate social interaction and connection with others who share similar interests.

Reasons why we should not watch TV:

a) Time consumption: Watching excessive TV can lead to a waste of time, especially when it interferes with more important activities such as work, studies, or personal relationships.

b) Sedentary lifestyle: Prolonged TV viewing can contribute to a sedentary lifestyle, leading to health issues like obesity, heart disease, and decreased physical activity.

c) Negative influence: Some TV content can have negative effects on our behaviour and attitudes, particularly when it promotes violence, inappropriate language, or unrealistic body standards.

d) Addiction and escapism: Watching too much TV can lead to addiction and a tendency to use it as a means of escaping from real-life responsibilities and problems.

e) Reduced productivity: Spending excessive time watching TV can reduce productivity and hinder personal growth or pursuing other constructive activities.
